

Promising Horizons

The ministry of higher education with very serious steps seeks to achieve this ambitious vision by the means of the strategic plan Afaq (horizons), the working on the realization of integration between all relevant sectors, and accompanying of the latest of the era.

If the (beginning) has been a desire to invest technology and uplift the traditional education, the realm, and its facts imposed on us its transformation into integrated system in the enrichment of the educational process ... to be in the (Future) a Prestigious Knowledge Society.