

The role of educational supervisor basic Competencies to develop professional growth of Teacher of Science

Dr. Abdullah bin Awad Al -H Harbi

Abstract

Supervision aims to develop teaching and learning processes, so this study was to Knowledge and reality of the work supervisors in Hafer al - Batin, and Knowledge of the essential competencies necessary educational supervisor That the development of professional growth for teachers.

The researcher used the descriptive method, The Study presented the following Results: "Respects the moral values of the educational supervisor of the teaching profession" was ranked first, with an average of 3.80 arithmetic. And "educational supervisor helps teachers to carry out scientific research" on the lowest average arithmetic, where it reached 1.9. In general, the arithmetic average of the year for the responses of the sample 2.81, and a medium degree. The researcher proposed a number of basic Competencies necessary educational supervisor that contribute to the development of professional growth for teachers in the following areas: educational, scientific, administrative, and communication with others. Finally, the study recommended to review principles and Standards for selecting the educational supervisor and work to develop them.