Summary of the Study:

Malaysia has achieved Unique economic development, despite late independence and lack of natural resources. It was impossible to achieve this boom without an Economic and Social flexibility that allowed for Religious, ethnic, and Linguistic variations in Malaysia to live in peace and mutual cooperation.

Saudi Arabia is similar to Malaysia in : population, weather, the diversity of religious beliefs, and the use of Islamic Economy. For all this, Saudi Arabia can benefit from Malaysia in: The export of Technology, Knowledge Economy, Freedom of the control of U.S. dollar, the shift towards industry, solving the unemployment problem, building an new Strategic plan for Saudi Arabia as Malaysian strategy 2020, and in direction towards east in education.
